24. TERMINATION.

- a. Termination. This Agreement, any Order and/or any Work may be terminated by Coke Florida: (i) upon any breach by Consultant that is not cured within ten (10) calendar days after Consultant's receipt of written notice of such breach, or (ii) without cause or reason by Coke Florida with thirty (30) calendar days' written notice to Consultant. - c. Assurance of Performance. In the event Consultant fails to perform when due any delivery and/or Work required by the Agreement or any Order, or Coke Florida in good faith has any other reason to question Consultant's intent or ability to perform, Coke Florida may, at its sole election, demand adequate assurance of performance, including that Consultant furnish a performance bond or letter of credit, conditioned to indemnify Coke Florida for any loss Coke Florida may sustain by failure of Consultant to perform its obligations. In the event Consultant fails to comply with such demand within ten (10) business days thereafter, Coke Florida may treat this failure as a breach of the Agreement and/or the applicable Order.

In the event of such a failure or delay in performance by Consultant resulting from a Force Majeure Event, Coke Florida may, at its sole discretion, reject any partial or future performance by Consultant upon giving reasonable notice in writing to Consultant, and the Agreement and/or Order (as specified by Coke Florida) will thereupon be terminated and neither party will be liable to the other hereunder except as to Work provided up until the date of termination. Whenever any Force Majeure Event delays or prevents full and timely performance or provision of any Work, or threatens to, Consultant will promptly give notice to Coke Florida of such Force Majeure Event and its expected duration, and will take all reasonable steps to recommence performance of its obligations as soon as possible.
